

CIDL PHOTOGRAPHY & VIDEO POLICY

Photos and videos from public programs and events held in the Library facilities and spaces may be used in the Library's website and publications for promotional purposes. Attendance at library programs, events or in library spaces constitutes consent to be photographed in print, social media and/or electronic publicity at the Clarkston Independence District Library. Photos, images, and videos submitted by users for online galleries or contests may also be used by the Library for promotional purposes.

The full names or any personal identifying information of photographed subjects will not be used to ensure the privacy of all individuals without express written approval from the subject, or if a minor, the parent or legal guardian. If you do not want us to use a photo or video of you or your child, please tell the Library staff member coordinating the event prior to the program.

I acknowledge that Clarkston Independence District Library and Friends of the Clarkston Independence District Library, may use such photographs of me and my art work with or without my name and for any lawful purpose, including for example such purposes as publicity, illustration, advertising, and web content.

IMAGINE THAT

A Visual Arts Show for Teens 2020

Wednesday, March 25, 2020 • 6:00 - 8:00pm
Voting from 6:00 - 7:15pm

STUDENTS ARE CORDIALLY INVITED to join us for an evening of art, food, and prizes at Clarkston Independence District Library's Teen Art Show. To submit your art, please read the Submission Guidelines, fill out the Submission Form, and present it with your entry at the Clarkston Independence District Library by Wednesday, March 11, 2020.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Students must be in grades 6-12 to participate. All students are allowed ONE entry. A completed Submission Form is required.
- Paintings, drawings, digital artwork, sculptures, culinary showpieces, flower arrangements, etc. are all eligible for entry.
- NO artwork framed with GLASS will be accepted. Pieces may be matted or mounted on foam or art board.
- Content must be appropriate for all ages. Any entry deemed inappropriate by the Library will not appear in the show.
- A copy of a student's original artwork may be submitted in place of the original piece.
- Entries must be turned in with a completed Submission Form by Wednesday, March 11, 2020. Only entries that are perishable may be brought early the day of the show (please make arrangements). However, an entry form must still be turned in by the due date, clearly indicating the type of artwork.
- Art pieces can be picked up any time after the Art Show, preferably by appointment. Please call 248.657.4286 and ask for Alayna Jones to make arrangements. Art not reclaimed by June 1, 2020 will be used or disposed of at the library's discretion.
- The Library is not responsible for lost or damaged artwork.
